KOMPUTER ENTHUSIASTS OF GREATER SEATTLE

Prez Says:

Gerald Smith

Happy New Year to all! Hopefully, this will be the year of the vaccines and recovery. The North Bellevue Community Center will be closed through January, and their Manager Dan expects it to be closed for several more months.

Our monthly General Meeting will be on January 11th via Zoom. This month's program will be "Tech for Seniors" presented by Ron Brown, Hewie Poplock, Bob Gostischa, Dewey Kloos, and Ray Baxter. We will view one of the latest episodes of Tech for Seniors, a one-hour Zoom presentation every Monday at 9 AM. Thank you to Steve and Sally Ann for hosting and making our meetings safe. Our Zoom meetings have been well attended, and I hope by June we will be able to meet in person again.

If you have not renewed your KEGS 2021 Membership, please do so. Download the Membership Form on the KEGS website (https://www.kegs.org/sig\_files/MEMAPP.pdf) and mail with your check to the address on the form.

Did you receive new computer devices over the holidays? Please save your not-too-old-devices for the next KEGS Auction. One of our members might find a use for it. The eight-year-old computer running Windows 10 Pro on which I am writing this Prez Says serves me well.

The current version of Windows is 20H2; please download it when it becomes available on your computer. To stay safe, security experts are recommending that you keep all of your devices updated as soon as an update becomes available.

Stay Home and Keep Safe.

Gerald Smith — President
